Online fraud is responsible for over a hundred billion dollars of losses annually, increasing at an alarming rate.

Scammers will take your money with no cares about the lives it ruins.
People are nothing but a money amount to them - a living, breathing ATM machine.
This is why this site exists.

Our staff of volunteers have around 35 years' combined experience in dealing with scammers and their victims, with site helpers adding to that number.

This site has three goals, and they're very simple:

To make scammers' lives harder by exposing their details and scripts to search engines.

Educating the public, thus removing scammers' sources of income as scams will continue as long as there are victims.

Helping people to see that, even after being scammed, they CAN move forward and things DO get better.

We deal with all kinds of scams, including 419, sextortion, webcam blackmail, fund transfer, tax refund, beneficiary/inheritance/next of kin, hitman, parcel, gold/diamond, charity, love/romance/catfish, dying widow/widower, military, lottery, secret shopper/work from home, business/investment/supply invitation, loan, ATM card, tax refund, recovery/compensation, conference, Craigslist, phishing, grandchild/friend in distress and car wrap.

We have provided help and information to the FBI, BBB, NCIS, Metropolitan Police and Trading Standards among others.
